

STATE ✓ CALIFORNIA		COUNTY San Francisco	TOWN OR VICINITY Funston Ave., nr. Lincoln Blvd., Presidio of S.F. 1P
INDEX NUMBER CAL 38 SANFRA 8 E		MONUMENT Presidio Old Station Hospital
REPRESENTED IN NEGATIVE FILE		H.A.B.S. SURVEY NO. CAL-1216	History: Although most of the Post Hospital was built in 1897 the element shown ("Old Station Hospital") was built in 1857 (oldest U.S. Army building at Presidio); Minor changes of upper level to permit glassing-in of porch. Description: 3-story (2-story wood frame and siding above high brick basement) on slope, providing grade entrance at two level (cont)
PUBLISHED PHOTOGRAPHS
PUBLISHED DRAWINGS

Continuous veranda across two upper levels, and 3/4ths of basement level. Verandas have tall, Classical Revival inspired squared Tuscan pillars, and continuous balustrade. Double hung windows surmounted with strip cornices.

References: Historic Record Books of Presidio.

Author of Card: Joseph A. Baird, Jr., PhD., Architectural Historian, San Francisco, California
August 1961
